This list, though periodically reviewed and updated, is not comprehensive and serves as a guideline to building owners, and Town of Jackson and Teton County officials, particularly in regards to the Town of Jackson Historic Preservation Ordinance (also known as the Demolition Review Ordinance). This list includes properties and structures in Teton County that are over fifty (50) years old or otherwise historically or architecturally significant. The Teton County Historic Preservation Board (TCHPB) is recognized by the State Historic Preservation Office of Wyoming. Appointed by the Board of County Commissioners, members serve volunteer terms of 1-3 years.
