INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLYING
FOR A
SEXUAL ASSAULT PROTECTION ORDER
IN WYOMING

A sexual assault protection order is a civil order issued by the court on behalf of a sexual assault victim. The order can require the alleged perpetrator to stay away from the victim or place(s) where the victim lives or works and to have no further contact with the victim.

Any person 18 or older who is a victim of sexual assault – including a single incident – may petition the court to obtain the order. Victims under 18 need a parent or guardian to petition on their behalf. A third party may also file on behalf of a vulnerable adult or any other adult who cannot file due to age, disability, health or inaccessibility.

The sexual assault protection order is designed for victims who do not meet the “household member” requirement with the person who sexually assaulted them to qualify for a domestic violence protection order. If you are considering petitioning for a sexual assault protection order, you should meet with a sexual assault advocate or a lawyer to discuss the different available remedies and challenges with the various orders.

A Sexual Assault Protection Order may also be obtained as part of a criminal case. If a victim reports the sexual assault to law enforcement and the assailant is being prosecuted, a judge may order the perpetrator to keep the assailant away from the victim when they are released from custody.

Petitioning the court for a Sexual Assault Protection Order does not guarantee your safety or that the alleged perpetrator or Respondent will comply with the terms of such an order.

For help in developing a safety plan or about protection orders and how to get one, contact your local sexual assault program (Safehouse –307-???-????) or (see Crisis Intervention in the Yellow Pages) or call the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault at (800) 990-3877 or Wyoming Division of Victim’s Services at (888)996-8816 or the National Domestic Violence Hotline at (800) 799-SAFE (7233) or (512) 453-8117 (multi-lingual advocates are available); TTY: (800) 787-3224.

Read all the instructions before completing forms to ensure that you qualify to seek a sexual assault protection order in Wyoming. YOU DON’T NEED TO FILL OUT EVERY FORM. ONLY FILL OUT THE INFORMATION SHEET AND THE PETITION. Keep the other forms, as you may need them at a later date.

PROCEDURE FOR SEXUAL ASSAULT ORDER OF PROTECTION

1. The petition is filed with the Court and if the Court finds there is a clear and present danger of continued sexual assault or other serious physical adverse consequences, an "Ex parte" Temporary Order of Protection will be issued and served on the Respondent. An ex parte order is an order that is entered after the court considers the Petitioner's information only. The Respondent will get notice of the allegations and will have an opportunity to be heard by the court at the hearing.
2. You should be prepared to present witnesses and other evidence to prove the sexual assault allegations at the hearing whenever possible. If the Respondent does not receive notice of the hearing from the Sheriff at least twenty-four (24) hours before the hearing the hearing may be rescheduled to a later date. You may have to contact the clerk of the circuit court where you filed the petition to make sure that the Respondent received proper notice of the hearing. The Ex parte Temporary Order of Protection will include terms the Court deems necessary and sufficient to protect the Petitioner and other persons and will contain a date and time within seventy-two (72) hours, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, for a hearing on the petition.
3. If the Court finds from the evidence at the hearing that sexual assault has occurred, an Order of Protection will be issued for up to six months, containing terms and conditions prohibiting further contact and/or sexual assault.

DURATION OF ORDERS

If the judge gives you a Sexual Assault Protection Order, it will be in effect for up to six months and you may ask the court to extend the order upon a showing of good cause that a clear and present danger to the victim continues to exist, for additional periods of time not to exceed one year each. The Respondent may object to the extension and another hearing may be set. Judges may differ on what they consider "good cause." In the event you desire an extension of the Order of Protection, the request for extension must be filed prior to the expiration of the existing order and must contain information for the Court to consider in determining whether to extend the existing order. It is recommended that you not wait until the last minute to ask for an extension. You may want to contact an attorney for advice prior to filing for an extension.

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE BY LAW ENFORCEMENT:

A victim of sexual assault may request the assistance of law enforcement agencies which may take necessary steps to protect the victim including advisement of the remedies in Wyoming Statutes §7-3-506 through 7-3-511, advising the victim, when appropriate, of the procedure for initiating a sexual assault action or criminal proceedings and providing for or arranging for transportation of the victim to a medical facility or place of shelter.
